

I support the expansion of the Low Powered FM stations throughout the country. Having local news, information and programming provides a vital entertainment and resource in a community full of pre-programmed radio and corporation censored news. I fully believe it needs to be expanded and there need to be more LPFM stations.